Join ADL for a day of Fighting Hate for Good...From Home.
Sunday, October 18, 2020

Walk Against Hate
12pm ET / 9am PT

Make your voice heard by stepping out for ADL's virtual Walk Against Hate! Join thousands from across the country to speak up against hate in your community. Invite family and friends, challenge classmates and coworkers, and let's take a step in the right direction—together.

ADL In Concert Against Hate
7:30pm ET / 4:30pm PT

Unite with ADL supporters from across the country and around the world for an evening of music and inspiration, celebrating heroes in the fight against intolerance, extremism and terrorism. ADL's first virtual ADL In Concert Against Hate continues a 25-year tradition of lifting up ordinary people who performed extraordinary acts of courage and compassion when confronted by hatred and bigotry, and showing our strength as a community fighting hate for good.

Also, mark your calendar! Coming in November, Never Is Now: ADL's Summit on Antisemitism and Hate.
